

Uniglobe Duty of Care

Duty of Care

Duty of Care has become the most important topic in this new world of Covid-19. When employees travel on company business, companies and organizations have a legislated responsibility to ensure traveller safety.

Uniglobe Travellers Emergency Hotline

Offering your travellers the highest level of service.

This North American based service operates 7 days per week, 24 hours per day, 365 days per year. For after hours assistance or while travelling, clients access the service by either calling a 1-800 number in North America or calling collect from anywhere in the world.

Supported by a Dedicated Travel Team

All travel arrangements whether booked on-line or via full service would be backed by an experienced and dedicated senior travel advisor, specifically assigned to your account. We are not a call centre and there is no queuing up, we actually answer the phone.

Employee Safety While Travelling

Let Uniglobe Travel help you with the appropriate protocols that will protect your travellers' safety, health, and security when on the road. Our comprehensive Duty of Care solution includes advisories, real-time location awareness, and reporting services which help eliminate the inherent travel risks your program will face. Uniglobe provides essential tools for your account's compliance with duty of care responsibilities. Manage your account's liability by insisting travellers book through your Uniglobe Travel Program.

Boots on the Ground

Uniglobe is also partnered with a low cost membership program that provides global response teams dispersed locally over 125 countries capable of rescuing and evacuating travellers and their family members back to their home at no extra cost.
